1. Action Requested: Accept or decline invitation to speak to The Student Legal Forum at the University of Virginia School of Law during the 1982-83 academic year.

2. Background: [Redacted]
Legal Forum, has invited you to speak to the law school and the university community. The Forum will be glad to have you at a date convenient for you.

STAT

The Student Legal Forum is an organization of approximately one hundred second- and third-year law students which provides a nonpartisan forum for the discussion of current topics of national importance. On the average, The Forum hosts twelve to fifteen speakers per year who appeal to a broad range of interests. Generally the speeches are attended by law students, professors, undergraduates, members of the Charlottesville community, and the news media. The Forum is the primary speaker organization serving the University.

Typically, The Forum hosts a cocktail and dinner party prior to the speech. The speeches are conducted on an informal basis with a question and answer period following the speaker's prepared remarks. A short reception usually follows each speech.

The Student Legal Forum is a viable group, and a good platform from which to speak. If you do not wish to personally accept the invitation, you could designate another senior Agency official to represent you.

3. Recommendation: None; indicate your preference and have Public Affairs Division respond for you per your indication.
